Elementary Teachers Get 1% Salary Increase; Instructor Questions Move

PICTURES of Peninsula Bus Lines vehicles were passed around the audience Monday night by the pro-jitney faction to show the delapidated condition of the buses, but nobody told the citizens that most of the pictures were taken in the company yard, where the vehicles were dismantled for repair. This photo shows one of the buses used on the regular run in South San Francisco. Councilman Del Wilson, in attacking the equipment of both Peninsula and Westmoor lines, neglected to point out that representatives of both firms went on record at a public council meeting that they would purchase additional buses for the Daly City service.

Citizen Protest Overruled As Council Votes in Jitneys

Despite overwhelming protest at the largest public council gathering in Daly City's history, the council Monday night approved jitneys as a mode of transportation here by a 3-2 vote.

Because of the almost unanimous public sentiment against the jitneys, a citizens committee was formed to scrutinize their operation and tight controls were recommended by the mayor.

As predicted in last week's RECORD the vote went as follows: Ed Dennis, Del Wilson and Micheal De Bernardi, for the jitneys; Mayor Joseph Verducci, Sanford Vickers, against.

More than 150 persons jamed the council chambers, overflowing into the aisles and leaving standing room only.

Westlake Improvement association was first to protest the jitneys operation here, as President Starr Dunham declared, "There'll eventually be 40,000 people out here and the jitneys won't be adequate." He held that retention of San Francisco municipal bus lines was the only solution."

Broadmoor Water Rate Hike Probable

An 18 per cent increase for water rates in the Broadmoor area appeared imminent Monday following an all-day hearing before the state public utilities commission in San Francisco.

California Water Service Co. presented their request for an overall rate increase of 18.42 per cent, basing the proposal on records which show the company has had a decreasing rate of return on their investment in Broadmoor for the past five years.

The new rates, according to the water company, would give them a six per cent return on investment, considered a fair margin of profit, according to PUC policy already established.

For the average Broadmoor homeowner, the increase would mean about $1 a month more for water. According to water company figures, average bill in the area is $51.67 a year. Under the revised rates annual bill per homeowner would be about $60.

Rate for service charge would be advanced from 70 cents to $2, under the water company proposal.

Now's the time to start cleaning out all that junk stored in the basement.

Next week during the annual Spring Cleanup the Daly City Scavenger company will haul it all away free of charge, according to President Al Sereni.

Sereni places the following stipulations on the cleanup:

1. Refuse must be tied with rope into bundles.
2. Bundles must not weigh more than 75 pounds.
3. Bundles must not contain dirt, rock or cement.
4. Cans and cleanup bundles must be placed on the curb in or-

Readers of THE RECORD will get a first-hand glimpse of what goes on during Clean-Up Week in next week's issue when reporter Nancy Lamb recreates an excursion with the Daly City Scavenger Co.

Miss Lamb will turn "lady garbageman" Monday morning at 3 a.m. when she will make the rounds with Scavengers in a semi-truck to report on the life of a professional garbage collector during Clean-Up Week.

Pay Boosts Definite For Employees

Mayor Joseph Verducci, commenting on a Daly City Employees association letter urging approval of proposed salary boosts, said Monday that, "The council feels definitely the employees should receive some increase."

The mayor declared amount of increase would be determined by two factors: The budget and fringe benefits.

He explained that the council must know how much present fringe benefits are worth in actual dollars and cents and consider them as part of the wages.

Verducci indicated the state salary survey, civil service board of review recommendations, and employees' proposal would all be considered in the final decision.

Employees are asking blanket increases amounting to about five per cent.

EXPECT SHOTS TO GO AHEAD MONDAY SEE LESS OKAYS

Plans for administering Salk vaccine here to first and second grade children will go into effect Monday pending approval of Parke-Davis vaccine by the federal government.

Dr. Harold Chope, county health director told THE RECORD before press time that he expected a favorable report. He said that 655,000 children had been given Parke-Davis shots and none had developed polio.

If the vaccine receives approval only 50 to 75 per cent of the children originally scheduled to receive shots will be given vac-

SELMI ASKS SALARY BOOST AS TREASURER

City Treasurer Paul Selmi, pointing out that his job had taken on "greatly added responsibility" with the growth of Daly City, asked the council for a salary raise Monday night.

Selmi receives $75 a month for his duties. He pointed out that this is the same amount received by the treasurer 15 years ago.

Councilman Sanford Vickers recommended Selmi's request be taken up during budget study.

THE GREAT DEBATE: ONE SIDE

By a majority of one vote, the council has given an "organization" of jitney owners verbal franchise to operate here.

We cannot argue with majority vote, but we do take issue with the methods used in furthering the jitney argument.

One councilman went to great lengths of oratory in an attempt to show that one of the applicants for a bus franchise here was a pauper.

He acquired his financial data from information submitted with state public utilities commission nearly a year ago. Because a man's assets do not surpass his liabilities at one time does not mean that he is financially irresponsible 12 months later.

This councilman jumped on the most minute fiscal detail and wielded it in his argument against the aspiring bus operator with the diligence of a bookkeeper.

Yet no word of the jitneys' financial reputation was mentioned.

The most this councilman could contribute to the financial background of the jitneys was that, "I know at least two of the men in the group have been to Europe for six months."

Another councilman passed around photographs of one of the bus line's equipment, pointing gleefully to the dismantled equipment.

The audience, however, was not told that many of these photos were taken of buses parked in the company yard for overhaul.

Nor did this councilman, or his two voting allies, point out that both bus companies' representatives said for the public record that they would purchase additional equipment if given the Daly City franchise.

This was tactfully avoided, though all three councilmen obviously knew the bus companies' offer, since they were present at the meeting when the statements were made.

If a councilman seeks to justify a cause with legitimate arguments against the opposition, we're all for it.

But Monday's demonstration was strictly a stacked-deck debate.

Wyandotte Sidewalk Is Repaired

A dangerous condition at the extension of Wyandotte street in eastern Daly City, brought to light pictorially in last week's issue of THE RECORD, has been remedied.

Two photograph's were run in last week's edition, showing condition of the sidewalk at Wyandotte. The walkway had been eroded underneath to a depth of three feet and heavy rains had caused a portion of the sidewalk to slide down hill.

Builder Ricco Lagomarsino, developer of the property, patched up the faulty sidewalk Friday and

Skyway Auto Sales Officials Sued For $42,000 Damages

Skyway Auto Sales, Inc., at 6918 Mission street here is facing a $42,000 damage suit filed Friday by a San Francisco man who claims he was defrauded by five company officials.

Named defendents are Angelo Ricci, Simon Yager, John J. Riordan, Loyola O'Brien and Edward Ricci. The suit was filed by Victor F. Brincat.

Brincat claims that in November of last year the defendants persuaded him to close his auto agency in San Bruno and transfer $8000 worth of equipment to

DC Librarian to Leave Post

Resignation of head librarian Lorraine Rollandi was revealed at Wednesday's meeting of the library commission.

Mrs. Rollandi has served at the local library for seven years and has headed the library staff for more than two years.

She said she would remain on the job until a replacement is found.

The commission recently upped number of years experience required for librarian from four to five and set a new salary range for the job of $358 to $456.

Present salary range is $295 to $341. Mrs. Rollandi receive $310.

Civil service board has approved the charge in salary range and requirements, but informed the commission that the position cannot be advertised until city council approves the changes.

HOLD OFF DRAIN PROJECT UNTIL PETITION GAINED

The city will wait for a majority petition before completing plans for a $100,000 drainage district in eastern Daly City, it was decided by the council Monday night.

Manager Howard Stites told councilmen that if the drainage district was rejected by property owners the city would be responsible for paying some $19,000 in engineering fees.

Motion to suspend engineering work on the project until a majority petition is obtained was passed unanimously.

Stites urged that citizens in the area affected aid the council in

Citizen Asks $10,000 Damages For Fall

Carl Kellstrom, 257 Citrus, filed claim with city council Monday night asking $10,000 damages for injuries suffered February 26 when he tripped on a city sidewalk near his home.

Kellstrom said that he tripped over a water meter cover box located on a city sidewalk, suffering injuries to his ankle and causing him loss of earnings.

The council denied the claim and referred it to City Attorney Frank Blum.

Concordia Residents, 268 Strong, Urge Transit

A petition with 268 names, urging "Transportation for people in the Concordia tract at the earliest possible time," was received by the city council Monday night.

Representatives from Bella Vista terrace also urged speedy action on the transit problem, stating that, "We'll take an ox or mule or anything."

A revised Jefferson Elementary teacher salary raise, amounting to one per cent or an additional $6000 per year, was passed unanimously Wednesday night over belated objections of James Hough. chairman of the teachers' salary committee.

The revised schedule affecting 158 instructors was presented to the board of trustees by Superintendent of Schools H. Z. Weibel during a late-starting board meeting, which was scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

When THE RECORD reporter arrived at the time set for the public meeting, she was told by Weibel that he was having a "private discussion" with some of the board members in his office. The "private discussion" continued until 8:10 p.m. when the officials moved into open session.

Hough rose to question the board about a half an hour after the board's salary decision was made. When asked why he hadn't spoken before passage of the schedule, Hough replied, "We've been waiting for someone to ask our opinion."

The salary committee chairman explained that his objection to the revised schedule was based on the fact that a master of arts degree retained importance.

"Master Barrier"

"The main part of our recommendation was to eliminate the Master barrier," Hough told the board.

At the last board meeting, Hough claimed that the time spent in acquiring a masters might be better utilized in taking courses that would pertain more directly to specific teaching problems.

"We were not informed of the new salary schedule," he charged, "and it was mentioned before that if one was made, it would be presented to the teachers for their approval."

Hough first asked that he be given a copy of the revised requirements to present to the Classroom Teachers' association, but accepting the advise of Weibel, he agreed to take it up with the salary committee.

"Do you think it would be wise to present this to all the teachers?" Weible asked, "Your presence here tonight proves the board is ready to cooperate wtih you."

$50,000 Differences

The approved schedule, claimed by board members to vary little from teachers' recommendations, shows a $6000 per year added salary output, while the teachers' schedule would have meant a $56,000 addition.

By revising the schedule to raise the importance of an M.A., fewer teachers fall into the higher income groups.

"I think we can afford this," Weibel told the board. "We figured this out more closely than the teachers because of records available to us and not to the teachers."

Last week the superintendent disputed the $56,000 figure presented by the teachers on the basis that there might be additional expenses not taken into account by

Colma Pioneer, Collegian In Separate Suicides Here

A 26-year-old University of California student shot and killed himself Wednesday evening in a locked storage room of a Westlake apartment. He was Andrew Walker of 81 Crestwood drive.

Police learned of the suicide when they investigated a call by a housewife who reported she could see blood leaking from under the storage room door. Mrs. Mona Borger, 162 Bel Mar avenue, told officers that she had been in the laundry room of the 81 Crestwood apartment a half-an-hour previous to discovering the blood.

She recalled that at that time she heard a "muffled noise" from the storage room, which opens from the laundry room. Mrs. Borger said she didn't pay any attention to the noise until she saw the blood upon returning to pick up her laundry.

When Sergeant August Benassini and Officer Robert Crooker arrived at the scene they found the door to the room locked from the inside.

According to Inspector Dave

An 84-year-old Colma pioneer lay dead from a self-inflicted wound for nearly eight hours Tuesday while his invalid brother, in an adjoining room, slept unaware of the death.

John Rodgers was found dead at 1524 Bryant street, his birthplace, at 1:40 p.m. Tuesday by Dr. Lawler Drees, who had been summoned by Rodger's niece, Alice Volkman of San Bruno, who visited the two brothers each day to prepare their meals.

An ancient .39 calibre revolver was found by the bed where Rodgers was lying. He had fired one shot through his chest.

The victim's brother, Hugh Rodgers, 79, lay bed-ridden in an adjoining room unaware of the incident. Dr. Drees later told Rodgers that "John had passed away."

Broadmoor police chief Ray Savage said Rodgers had been dead for at least eight hours.

Rodgers was born in the Bryant street home and had lived there all his 84 years.

Camp Mattrup Clearance Of Plague Is Premature

An announcement that Mattrup Girl Scout camp site in Colma was free of plague infection was labelled as "premature" yesterday by Eugene M. Howell, San Mateo county public health engineer.

A Girl Scout representative called this office Tuesday, stating that Fred Collins, local deputy health officer, announced that state inspectors had given the Camp Mattrup site clearance.

Later Tuesday the Scout official called again, stating that Howell had termed the announcement "premature."

Howell told THE RECORD that the state health department has set traps at Mattrup to catch field mice and rats, which will be examined for plague-carrying fleas.

Until the investigation is completed, the county health department will keep its "off-limits" recommendation for Mattrup as a precautionary measure, he said.

Howell said if the vectors are proved to be free of plague infection, or if no mice or rats are caught, the area would probably be cleared and opened for use within a month.

As it now stands, Howell pointed out, Camp Mattrup is a potential "reservoir of infection and there's no use taking any chances."

Council Overrules Citizens' Protests, Votes In Jitneys

Broadmoor Property Owners association, which had steadfastly opposed the jitneys, said he was for either of the two bus lines, maintaining that the jitneys "Won't make money if they don't serve Broadmoor."

Maryann Read, president of the BPOA, commented after the meeting that the three councilmen voting for jitneys "showed very poor judgment. Ninety per cent of the people up there were for buses. Are they trying to please the people, or somebody else?" she asked.

A resident of Westlake commented that, "I know none of the parents want their children to ride in the jitneys. I wish you councilmen would reconsider.'

Says Made "Poll"

John Drye, 148 Wilshire, the lone member of the audience to speak in favor of the jitneys, declared he had made a "poll" of Westlake and discovered that four out of five people favored jitneys.

"The municipal railroad is a complete farce," he said. "Lots of people favor the jitneys. They're the only adequate form of transportation."

"There are 13,000 people out here. Have you polled them all?" asked Dunham. Drye answered he hadn't.

"Did you ever try to get a jitney with two or three children and a load of packages?" asked Mrs. H. S. Garrison, 324 Northgate. "Sometimes you have to wait for three or four jitneys before you find room."

Loud applause followed her question.

Drye replied, "Did you ever try the same thing on a bus." His retort was followed by scattered applause.

"Mrs. Garrison expressed my views," said Peter Markovich, 160 Northgate.

"Jitneys Not Capable"

"I'm almost certain jitneys are not capable of getting a bond. Anybody that gets the franchise should be highly bonded.' He also held that Broadmoor should be given consideration.

Mrs. Irvin Silberstein, 157 Wilshire, asked of the council if there were any cities that use jitneys. "They appear to me to be a very narrow approach to the problem. Why don't you try to look ahead?"

Councilman Vickers answered that there wasn't a single city in California that relied on jitneys as sole means of transit.

George Hopman, 64 Eastlake, said, "How can you councilmen vote on something when you don't even know what it is?"

Verducci answered that it was up to the councilmen, not the citizens, to vote.

"School Kids?"

"How about handling the school kids?" a member of the audience asked.

"That hasn't been worked out yet," Verducci replied.

At one point in the proceedings a member of the San Francisco Jitney association asked J. Walsh, representative of the Daly City jitney group, just whom he was representing.

Walsh answered that, "I said I represented an organization."

A note of humor interrupted the meeting at one time when City Attorney Frank Blum, speaking about "jitneys," was corrected by Wilson, who said, "Don't you know that they are referred to as stage coach corporations, and not jitneys?"

"Need Bus Service"

Junius Powell Jr., 392 Glenwood avenue, closed citizen argument against the jitneys, commenting that, "The jitneys are well equipped to operate in high volume traffic on one artery but they won't do the people in Broadmoor or Skyline boulevard in Westlake any good. Some sort of bus service is need to meet the need."

Near the end of discussion, Councilman Dennis, who opposed the jitneys a year ago, passed among the audience pictures which had been taken of Peninsula Bus Line vehicles Sunday, pointing out their delapidated condition.

The pictures, however, showed mainly the buses in the yard that weer dismantled for repair work. The photos were taken by a local insurance agent.

Hits Perkins' Finance

Councilman Wilson, when called upon to cast his vote, attacked the financial status of Burt Perkins, who proposed the Westmoor bus line, which would serve Broadmoor and Westlake. He pointed out that Perkins had virtually no assets, when his debts were compared against his property.

Asked yesterday about the financial status of the jitneys, Wilson said, "Well, I know at least two of the men in the group have been to Europe for six months, one owns an expensive apartment and the other has a wife whom I know makes $800 a month."

Wilson declared he would hold out for a $50,000 performance bond from the jitneys.

Verducci, in casting his vote for municipal railway first, private buses second and jitneys third, called for stringent measures to protect citizens when the jitneys go into operation.

He asked for centralized control, $100,000 insurance on each vehicle, licensing of drivers, periodic inspection, fixed routes, established schedules, financial investigation, and provision for school children.

OK Citizens Group

Vickers, who voted for private buses, made a motion that a citizens committee be formed to scrutinize and evaluate the jitneys transportation and report back to the council after the jitneys had operated here six months.

His motion was passed unanimously.

Verducci appointed the committee, which will include representatives of the following groups: Daly City-Colma Lions, Rotary club, Eagles, Mother Guild, Westlake Improvement association, Hillside Improvement association, Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, Merchants association, Westlake Business and Professional association, Cemeteries association, Colma council, planning commission, Father Richard Power, Father Norman Allen, the Rev. Roy Milam, the Rev. Thomas Whelpley, Daly City Improvement association, Masonic Lodge, Westlake Temple Group and PTA coordinating council.

Walsh Proposal

Meanwhile, THE RECORD learned that Walsh, who purports to represent an "organization" to serve Daly City, had offered to make a "proposal" before the San Francisco Jitney Drivers and Owners association.

Stanley Sekulski, committee member of the San Francisco group, said Walsh approached his association after the votes had been cast Monday night and asked to appear before the San Francisco group to offer a plan. Walsh was turned down, Sekulski said.

"We want the people of Daly City to know that Mr. Walsh and Paul O'Leary (who also appeared at Monday's meeting), are not a part of our organization," said Sekulski.

In other business Monday, the council:

1. Closed hearing on vacation of Albion street. There were no written or oral protests.

2. Considered re-subdivision of Blocks 61 and 62, Abbey Homestead. Arthur Bodien told councilmen the county planning commission should have been notified of this action, while residents of area asked to be on hand when decision was reached.

3. Approved new union wage scale for city contracts.

4. Appointed Verducci to the San Mateo County Development association.

5. Held over amendment to agreement for maintenance of state highways within Daly City.

6. Approved offer of Callan Bros. Construction Co. to pave two blocks on Hoffman street and pay half cost of installing fire alarm circuit installation. The firm enclosed check for $235 to cover their share of alarm installation.

7. Held over awarding contract on fire equipment until next week, pending report from City Manager Howard Stites. The manager said Monday that despite a depleted budget, there should be sufficient money in the fire bond fund to cover the cost.

8. Approved following payments: Oscar C. Holmes, $1752.68, Brunswick street extension; Associated Pipeline Inc., $10,789.15, water main between Reservoirs 1 and 2; Associated Pipeline, $918.64, water mains; Engineer Edwin H. Smith, $2070, for March services on Westlake maps, Daly City drainage, gas tax projects and water system; Kennedy Electric, $926, Westlake reservoir No. 1.

9. Accepted plans and specifications for resurfacing Brunswick and other streets and called for bids May 21.

10. Rescinded ordinance creating fire and police commissions.

11. Set May 16 to 20 as Vista Grande Community Concert week and May 27 and 28 as Poppy Days.

Broadmoor Water Rate Hike Probable

Thomas Jenkins, attorney acting as spokesman for the Broadmoor Property Owners association, declared this service charge increase "way out of line."

He also said the water rate increase was out of proportion. He maintained that Broadmoor is being asked to pay $3000 for Water Service Co. study made in preparation for the public hearing.

The water company is asking that the rate raise be made retroactive to January 1.

Jenkins said later that he thought the water company would "definitely" be granted some increase, but didn't believe the PUC would approve the retroactive charge.

The PUC decision will probably be made in about a month, Jenkins estimated.

Tomorrow (Thursday) the California Water Service will appear before the commission to argue a rate increase for South San Francisco.

Scouts "Grateful" For Advance Coverage

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

The 1955 Scout-O-Rama was one of the most successful in the S. F. Scout Council's history. It packed the Cow Palace with an overflow crowd both nights of the show.

We are very grateful to the fine advance coverage your newspaper gave to our big Scouting event, because we feel the publicity we received played an important part in getting such a big attendance at the show.

It is very gratifying to us to have such a splendid turn-out at this event. Because the Scout-O-Rama not only helps us bring Scouting to more boys in Daly City, but it shows the people in an interesting way what Scouting is all about.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for your interest in the Scouting movement here.

Sincerely,
Oscar C. Alverson
Scout Executive

Merced VFW Thanks Record For Coverage

Dear Sir:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and the members of your staff for your fine coverage of local VFW news and news events of general interest to veteran residents.

During my year as Commander of Lake Merced Post 9921, VFW, we had the pleasure of having one of the most outstanding dances in the Daly City community for the benefit of the various youth organizations in the area. We were able to sponsor a new Boy Scout Troop in Colma and have given generous donations to the Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Broadmoor Youth association and other youth groups. Again may I express our gratitude for your fine coverage.

ATTRACTICE ARCHITECTURE is one of the main features of the new sewage disposal plant off Lake Merced boulevard north of Alemany. Note the covered clarifier tanks in the front of the picture. Odor and unattractive appearance are eliminated in this new $500,000 plant, which will open in a few weeks.

NEW $500,000 SEWAGE PLANT BUILT FOR FUTURE GROWTH

The new $500,000 sewage disposal plant off Lake Merced boulevard north of Alemany is built with the future in mind.

When it opens in a few weeks, the North San Mateo County Sanitation District Sewage Disposal plant will provide facilities for approximately 35,000 persons. However, the plant has been designed for the district's estimated ultimate population of 40,000.

The district includes the incorporated area of Daly City and certain contiguous county territory. The area is roughly bounded on the north by the San Francisco and San Mateo county line, on the east by the Crocker estate and Mt. Olivet cemetery, on the south by D street and Old San Pedro road and on the west by a line west of Skyline boulevard.

District area is 2525 acres or about four square miles.

Formerly sewage was collected at a common point at the southwest end of the Settling Pond area, from which point wastes were discharged into an 18 inch outfall line to a 24 inch line along Lake Merced boulevard and from there to the old brick tunnel to the ocean beach, a half mile north of the county line.

Discharged Untreated

The entire waste collected with the district was discharged to the ocean untreated.

On March 11, 1946, the California State Department of Public Health adopted a resolution against the disposal of raw sewage into water of the State without appropriate treatment. Because of this, the district was formed.

In order to comply with a resolution by the Water Pollution Control board, a disposal plant was found imperative.

Since all sewage within the district met at a common point, the old Settling pond, the plant site was determined.

Attractive Appearance

Because the plant could not be constructed in an isolated area, it is of an attractive architectural appearance and will be landscaped to blend with the surrounding land.

In June of 1953 a $600,000 bond election held within the district was approved. A total of $500,000 in bonds were sold.

Following is an explanation of the basic elements of the plant:

The influent enters the comminutor machines which chop up the larger solids, following which it is run into two clarifier tanks which are completely covered. The flow can be directed at any time from the control chamber.

3 Million Gallons Daily

Settled sewage from the clarifier tanks, after thorough chlorination, will be discharged to the outfall line. About three million gallons of sewage a day will pour through these lines.

The solids removed by the clarifiers will be pumped to the sludge digester where they will undergo digestion, a natural process, after which they become stable and free from odor.

During the process, methane gas is collected in a dome on top of the digester. This gas is piped to the control house and utilized in the gas boiler which heats the digester to approximately 90 degrees. The sludge may be used as fertilizer or dribbled into the plant effluent line at time of outgoing tide. It will take about six weeks after the plant is in operation to acquire sludge.

Control House

The control house has all the necessary electrical control equipment chlorination facilities, sludge handling and heating equipment laboratory and office space.

Because of the location of the treatment plant it will be necessary to insure against any possibility of odors. To accomplish this and to keep sewage out of public sight all tanks are covered.

Overall operation and maintenance will run about $40,000. The district is now studying costs of operation of other plants so as to operate as efficiently and economically as possible.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

Television stars are a little out of our line; we don't even own a TV set. But the forthcoming appearance of Ed Sullivan and his "Toast of the Town" at the War Memorial Opera House, Tuesday, May 24, is of interest to us as among the big-time acts which Sullivan is bringing are the dance satirists, Mata and Hari.

As they have made several appearances on the Ed Sullivan TV shows and many readers of this column have undoubtedly enjoyed watching them, a little of their past history may be of interest.

Both were born in the same suburb of Zurich, Switzerland, went to the same schools and studied dancing with the same teachers, yet never met until they were established professional dancers in the same ballet company.

Married In U.S.

After coming to the United States with this troupe of dancers, they were married and made several transcontinental tours with this ballet company. When the company disbanded and returned to Europe in 1940, Mata and Hari decided to go it alone and try their luck in the new world.

At that time they put together a recital program of their own, and presented it at the YMHA Auditorium in New York, on a bill which also included numbers by Agnes de Mille and Jerome Robbins. It would be interesting to track down the reviews of this program, considering that all four artists still had their names to make. It would certainly make interesting reading to see whether or not the critics recognized these artists potentialities.

Familiar Figures

Since that time Mata and Hari have become familiar figures on the Broadway stage, nightclub, film and TV audiences. They have made millions laugh with their satires of familiar American institutions. They have satirized the ballet. The hectic tempo of life along 42nd street was of course a natural for a Mata and Hari treatment, and they have done a once-over-lightly version of a newsreel's kaleidoscope of sport, during which they box, row, swim and even kick for a goal. Not even Carnegie Hall has been sacred.

Their dancing is done with that effortless ease that is the result of a superb technical equipment and discipline and not only the eye and ear but also the imagination of their audiences is entertained.

Sadler Wells

While on the subject of dancers, etc., there has been one announcement in the papers that Sadler's Wells will return to San Francisco and requests have already been received for tickets. What's interesting about that? Sadler's Wells isn't scheduled to appear until the early part of November!

HISTORIC SITE IN DALY CITY IS IDENTIFIED

An unidentified scene in Daly City's infant years that was printed in last week's issue of THE RECORD is no longer a mystery.

The photo, run in conjunction with a feature on the H. H. Smith's 50th anniversary, has been identified by a half-dozen pioneer residents as the corner of Market and Mission streets in the Colma area.

Among those readily identifying the historic scene were Ricco Lagomarsino, Edmund Cavagnaro, Councilman Edward Dennis, Henry Sundermann Sr. and two anonymous callers.

PLANS READY FOR WIDENING SKYLINE

Bids are scheduled to be called for this month for improvement of .9 mile section of Skyline boulevard between San Francisco county line and Alemany boulevard in Daly City, according to announcement today by B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer.

Plans have ben completed for the project, for which $348,000 has been budgeted, Booker said.

The .9 mile section will be widened from a three-lane road to a divided four-lane facility.

Mussel Quarantine

A county mussel quarantine will be in effect until October 31, according to the department of public health.

Violaters of the order who sell mussels for purposes other than fish bait will be prosecuted.

MRS. HELEN DELAFIELD, Jefferson elementary school district health coordinator, explains the Salk vaccine program to fifty-five women volunteers, who met at the Broadmoor Community center on Monday. Administration of the vaccine is due to begin next Monday for first and second graders in Daly City. Innoculations will continue Wednesday and Friday of next week, and second shots will be given June 6, 8 and 10.

PERSONALITY SKETCH . . . As Conductor Gregory Millar raises his baton today (Friday) to conduct the Little Symphony in another concert over KQED the featured soloist for the evening and our television personality for the week is first oboist Raymond Duste; who lives with his family in Broadmoor. He will play the Handel Oboe Concerto In G Minor on the third program of this outstanding musical series telecast regularly over Channel 9 every Friday evening at 7 p.m.

Well-known throughout the bay area musical world, Raymond Duste has been first oboist with the San Francisco Ballet and the Ice Follies as well as several seasons for the Light Opera Series at the Curran Theatre.

Born in Utah, he moved to San Francisco when very young. His interest in music began when he played the saxophone in high school. After graduation and during army service because of his outstanding talent he was chosen to study at the Peabody Conservatory In Baltimore. During that time he was coached by Marcel Tabuteau, noted teacher.

Impresses Monteux

Asked about highlights in his career, he thought for a moment and said there were several. One time was when the famous conductor Pierre Monteux heard him play, was impressed by his talent, and referred to him as "the boy." To this day Monsieur Monteux talks about him in that manner. Raymond Duste feels that another milestone in his career is the great satisfaction and happiness that comes with knowing that several of his pupils have become noted musicians.

Among the "pioneers of Broadmoor" the Duste' family have resided on Washington street for about eight years. Mrs. Duste, or Verna as she is known to her friends in our community, has been a very active person in civic organizations. She was president of the James L. Snell PTA last year, and before that served as secretary of the Broadmoor Property Owners' association as first woman member of the board. There are two children in the Duste' family, Anita, age 7, and Marc, 4 years old.

Enthusiastic about the Little Symphony's participation in television, Raymond Duste' feels that the program is a pioneering idea and he is glad that the group is able to "take advantage of the wonderful medium of television."

"Chez Mimi" Guides

Over 1000 "Chez Mimi" study guides sold and the supply is exhausted! That's the record that KQED can proudly point to as this series of children's programs in beginning French is concluded. Offered in conjunction with the program, the study guides were available to viewers for 50 cents apiece. These results are an excellent demonstration of the interest viewers have in programs that are informative. Also the program is a good illustration of how television can be used successfully in the field of education.

THE FRIENDLY GIANT program, which starts today on Channel 9 (5 to 5:15 p.m.), features Bob Homme in the role of the giant.

The 26-week children's series received the recent Ohio State university award for the best "children and youth" program in 1954.

Local Woman Takes Sedative Overdose

A Daly City woman was released Wednesday from Community hospital where she had ben held for 72 hours by order of local police.

Miss Benita Schuster, 32, of 113 Peoria street, allegedly attempted suicide Monday by swallowing an overdose of sleeping pills. She was found unconscious in the bedroom of her apartment yesterday by a roommate, Miss Jay McGuire, 24.

Miss McGuire had asked Officer Lester Bastedo to accompany her to the Peoria street apartment to pick up some belongings. Police explained the two women apparently had argued, and Miss McGuire had asked for accomodations at the city jail the previous night. Police granted her request.

When the officer and Miss McGuire arrived at the apartment they found Miss Schuster, clad in pajamas, lying unconscious on the bed. According to Officer Bastedo, she was breathing heavily and could not be awakened. He said that a sedative bottle was beside the bed.

Miss McQuire told police that her roommate took a sleeping pill every night.

The Schuster woman was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital where she received emergency treatment before being transferred to Community hospital.

DR. McCONNELL NAMED CONVENTION PRESIDENT

Minister of the Vista Grande Avenue Christian church, Howard Patrick McConnell, has been named president of the Centennial Convention of the Disciples of Christ of Northern California, to be held in Stockton, May 18-22.

Dr. McConnell, who has been a California Pastor for 30 years, stated that Stockton was chosen as the meeting place because the first church of the denomination, west of the Rocky Mountains, was organized there in 1851 and the first California State meeting was held there in 1855. Plans are being made for an attendance of more than 2000 people from 85 churches in Northern California.

Vista Grande Christian Church started April 1, 1951.

Two features of the four-day meeting, an "old timers" picnic lunch and a historical pageant, are designed to dramatize 100 years of church history which the Convention commemorates.

Lunch will be held at Stockton's Oak Park at 12:15 p.m. on Saturday, May 21, with many of those in attendance dressed in costumes of 1855.

The Centennial Pageant will be presented on Saturday evening, May 21. The presentation will be at 8:15 p.m. and the second at 9:30 p.m. This dramatic production was written by Mrs. D. L. Gladson, wife of the pastor of the First Christian Church of Oakland. Dr. McConnell will be the narrator of the pageant.

The theme and hymn of the Convention is "O God, our help in ages past; Our Hope for years to come." Prominent national leaders of the denomination will speak during the four-day meeting.

The convention will close on Sunday evening, May 22, with a service of ordination of Ministers in charge of Dr. Theodore Leen, Executive Secretary of the Christian Churches of Northern California.

STATE MEETS NECESSARY, CROCKER-PERSHING PTA TOLD AT FINAL SESSION

"Are State PTA Conventions necessary?"

The unanimous answer was a definite "yes" after hearing the two reports given by the delegates from Crocker-Pershing PTA who had just returned from the convention in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Kenneth Lien, president, and Mrs. C. Allen Carpenter, vice president, both gave complete reports on their activities and reactions to the convention, and assured the membership that the knowledge they acquired there would not only benefit them, but the entire unit throughout the coming term.

These two reports were the highlight of the final meeting of the term held Tuesday at Crocker school.

Other business and reports included the treasurers' report by Mrs. Lyall Ingersoll, the reading and approval of the estimated budget for the term, and a report from Mrs. Charles Munday, health chairman, on the polio situation. Announcements were made by Mrs. Eleanor Zenovich, Crocker principal, concerning the sixth grade end of term outing, and by Don Pagani, General Pershing principal, that a May Festival will be held on May 20.

Music, Flowers At 8th Spring Festival

Music and flowers will be among highlights of the program at the eighth Annual Spring Festival, to be held at the War Memorial community center on Sunday, May 22. The festivities will begin at noon when the doors will open and the PTA coordinating council will offer pre-show refreshments.

The show, featuring many of the young artists of Daly City, will begin at 1 p.m. with crowning of the May Queen by Mayor Joseph Verducci. This will be followed immediately by a procession of talented youngsters who have practiced long and hard for this annual event.

The coordinating council will also offer refreshments during the intermission and after the show. In addition to the entertainment, the Daly City Garden club has undertaken the task of decorating the stage with flowers and evergreens. "In all the music and flowers will provide a very appropriate theme for the entrance of the spring season to Daly City," according to James Mason, recreation director.

POWER BRAKES

Power brake hits are available for many automobiles not originally equipped with them, but it is unwise to have one installed unless a competent mechanic checks the brake system to see if it is in good condition, advises the California State Automobile Association. The extra braking pressure that a power kit supplies may cause brake failure on an older car.

Lutherans To Hold Berkeley Weekend Meet

Men and women active in California and Nevada congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod—will have their annual district Lutheran Laymen's League convention Saturday and Sunday at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Berkeley.

Featured speaker at the sessions and at the Saturday night convention banquet will be Elmer F. Kraemer, publicity director of the 80,000 member international Lutheran Laymen's League and editor of "The Lutheran Layman," a full-sized newspaper, issued monthly by that organization. Another project of the Lutheran Laymen's League is sponsorship of the internationally broadcast "Lutheran Hour" radio program.

A native of Ohio, Kraemer served for eighteen years on the editorial and advertising staffs of newspapers in Cleveland, Marion and Niles. Previous to joining the League staff in 1951 he served as managing editor of the daily newspaper in Niles.

Now a resident of Webster Groves, Missouri, Kraemer is serving on the editorial board of "This Day," a Christian family magazine published in St. Louis; on the board of the "St. Louis Lutheran," a bi-weekly newspaper published in the headquarters city of the League; as a member of the audio-visual aids board of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod; and as a member of the publicity committee of his church body's television program, "This is the Life."

Christensen Wins Role In "Little Foxes"

Ron Christensen, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Christensen of 161 Bepler street, will play the villaninous and weak Leo Hubbard in "The Little Foxes" to be presented by the Players Club of the College of San Mateo May 20-21.

Christensen appeared in several plays while attending Jefferson High school, among which were "Murder Has Been Arranged," "The Farmer's Daughter," and "Best Foot Forward." A graduate of Jeff last year, he is now working toward a speech major at San Mateo college.

"The Little Foxes" is strong drama, written by Lillian Hellman, who attacks the evils of the tenant system in the evolving South of 1900.

Mel Ellett, teacher of speech and drama at CSM, is enthusiastic about the manner in which his cast is taking hold of this dramatic Broadway hit.

Other members of the cast are: Marilyn McKenna, Regina; Leona Kogan, Birdie Hubbard; Jane Hamilton, Alexandra Giddens; Carole Gorman, Addie; Bob Steele, Oscar Hubbard; Bob Wood, Ben Hubbard; Bill Gordon, William Marshall; Bob Ackerman, Horace Giddens; and Bill Ramey, Cal.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

Holmes Mitchell, "Cap" to his friends in the Nationals, attended the 100th anniversary banquet of that group recently as its oldest living member, having joined in 1892 and retired as a captain in 1925. The Nationals draw their membership from the National Guard now, but the group originally started as the Pennsylvania Volunteer Fire Company in 1855, before there was such a thing as the National Guard. There are no group activities now except the annual get-together banquet at the headquarters on Eddy street, but there used to be a Zouave drill team and sharpshooting competitions and the like, and back in 1906 the PVFC did emergency work during the earthquake and fire. "Cap" Mitchell lives on Maddux drive with his daughter and son-in-law, Dorothy and Frank Croley, and there was an especially happy family time when Frank's son Harold and his new bride came down from Sacramento for a day's visit not so long ago.

Now is the time of May Festivals. Some of Broadmoor's young ones took part in a minstrel shoy put on by the Andre Dance Studio at the festival at Parkside recently. Peggy Murphy, Vincenta Yates, Billy and Pamela Eagleton, Linda and Laura Anderson, Marilyn Riggs, Russell Kerger, Kenny Hahn, Jimmy and Kay Anderson, Nomie and Dawn Klevesahl and Joyce Navarro all performed in the best showboat style.

The last two Sundays were First Communion days for many Broadmoor children and family parties marked the event. Linda Hurst and her family held open house up on Gilman for many friends and celebrated Linda's birthday as well. Sweetwood's young Gordon Feist helped his parents host a buffet dinner, with lots of people, food and fun on hand, and young Jim Buchanan had a communion breakfast at his Manila home with his godmother, Mrs. Marie Lodijani, and his godfather, R. C. Jasinsky, on hand to share the family happiness. Sorry to say, Jim caught cold the next day, but he's all right now.

Another Broadmoor family will be leaving shortly. The John Bells and family are leaving Midway for Rollingwood.

Small Talk: Take a look at the Macklin's house on Sullivan the next time you go shopping at King's. They painted their home recently and the colors are just the right background for the beautiful climbing roses along the front porch.

Members of the VFW Auxiliary have found out just who has been whose Secret Pal all year at the Revealing Dinner. Now they know! Shirley Hale and Gwen Anthony have grought teen-age distinction to 90the street and Gilman drive—they both won honorable mentions in the American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Poster Contest. Congratulations! Meredith Orloff and Verna Duste tied for the prize at our Stanley Party with their versions of clocks. Verna's was divided into graphic descriptions of her day, and Meredith's was enjoyed later by everybody, being a delicious pizza! Kay Logan, Billy Buchanan and Peg Elliot completed the guest list.

The Ted Weibels had house guests last week. Ted's sister Martha, a government nurse, had just completed her tour of duty at the hospital at Port Defiance, Arizona (this is the Navajo hospital mentioned in the Saturday Evening Post about three weeks ago), and was visiting with Mrs. Frank Hoopes in Delano. Mrs. Hoopes and Martha came on up this way to meet Mr. Hoopes, who had just returned from a fishing trip in Australia and New Zealand, and they all spent some time on Louvaine Drive with the Weibels, hearing about the one-that-got-away Down Under!

Fisherman's Wharf will have a busy time the evening that all the Jefferson Elementary School District teachers and administrators get together for their annual dinner and end-of-year social time. Speaking of our schools, the bulletin boards in the Jefferson Elementary school are really something to see, with beauty and interest making one want to read and look at everything posted thereon.

The sick list seems to be family size lately, with the Fred Wittigs, Mark Swoverlands and Ray Dustes sharing flu bugs. Carol Weibel, Richard Orloff, Lynn Navarro, Gordon Feist, Sr., John Pickens, Dolores Helmer and Bea Meade had their share of misery too, but we are glad to report that everybody is pretty well back to normal again. Mary Ann Ivons was a pretty sick little girl with pneumonia, but she is feeling herself by now, and was one of those receiving First Communion.

Old Faithful Stork never forgets Broadmoor—or is it Babytown? Newest young gentlemen are Philip Albert Silvestri, who joined brother Frank and sister Rose Ann on Sweetwood with the kingly weight of 8 lbs. 6 oz., and Monty John Becker, who came as a 7 lb. 14 oz. playmate for young Mark and Donna up on Larchmont hill. The young ladies were represented by Carol Jean Bonser, a 7 lb. 3 oz. treasure for the Quentin Bonsers on Sweetwood, whose treasure last year was the Emperor Norton variety! Wayne, Gordon and Patty Ann were on the welcoming committee. Also on the distaff side was Marla Kay, the First Baby of the week, who is the special 5 lb. 9 oz. property of Norma and Ed Tuomi. She's a Sweetwood resident, too.

Rosemary Lamentia went visiting a girl friend in Fairfax for a time while husband Don was away on a Navy cruise, and when she came back her Midway neighbors didn't recognize her. Once-blonde Rosemary now has black hair!

Busiest family of the week—Dr. Mayo Bryce and wife Corinne of Garden Lane! First they took sons Mark and David on a faculty (S. F. State) family picnic, together with the John Bergstressers and Reginald Bells. Then they were guests at a most interesting dinner party at the home of Dr. Alfred Fiske, member of S. F. State's philosophy department. Also present at the dinner was Madame Isvah, a member of the city council of Istanbul and a guest of the U. S. State Department. Part of the evening was spent in discussing Dr. Fiske's coming summer tour to Africa, one of many such tours he has conducted. And then Corinne attended a tea given by the faculty wives for 200 students from all over the United States, here for the UNESCO meeting at the college in connection with the UN meeting in San Francisco.

Midway came through as usual—there's always something happening on that street! This time it was Hilda Stettler's jewelry party, with Vi Murphy, Rosemary Lamentia, Bea Yates, Agnes Rizzardo and Roberta Taylor there to see and hear about Sarah Coventry jewelry from Marion Rosengreen. Kenny Stettler had a happy birthday wishes coming his way even though the flu tried hard to intercept them. There was also Linda Tolomei's second birthday party, quite a Special Event for her, with Cindy Muncey, Lynn Kleppe, Patty Slattery, Peggy Murphy and Cookie Martin all dressed in their best. There was a cake with pink candles, and Vi Murphy came with it as Chief Cake Cutter!

Charlotte Spruiell, Sabina Fairbanks and Jean Nourse represented our Broadmoor Presbyterian church at the Presbyterial meeting at Portalhurst church. The world service department was in charge of the program, a very impressive and moving one, with all countries represented. While talking with Charlotte, we were glad to learn that Rex is feeling better after having had a siege in the hospital and some return short visits there.

Nine is a good number, whether for a baseball team or for the trout to be enjoyed by Filman's Warner and Ottosen families. Seems Clarry O. and Cliff W. went fishing at Hat Creek near Mt. Lassen and came home with the aforementioned number.

Speaking of Gilman, there's another busy area! Gerrie Richard was honored at a baby shower, with Virginia Randall, Maxine Dollarhide, Doris Elliot, Mrs. Reichard, Muriel Carlson, Marion Wickham, Joanne Philpott, Marjorie Wiley, Maxine Garner, Margaret Robertson, Corena Thomas, Mary Nagel, Leora Allen, Margie Childress and Mrs. Thorstensen and her daughter Dorothea Hecht all oh-ing and ah-ing over the gifts for the expected third little Reichard. Ruth Mary Warner and Donna Ottosen were co-hostesses, and baked most beautiful cakes—one in the shape of a cradle, and one with real yellow roses on it. All in all, it was quite a happy evening!

Beth Calvin Becomes Mrs. Richard Russo

Spring bouquets formed a background for the wedding of Beth Anne Calvin and Richard Paul Russo, who were married recently at Trinity Episcopal church in San Jose.

The new Mrs. Russo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Calvin of 25 Whittier street. She is a graduate of Jefferson High school and of San Jose State college where she received her B.A. in interior decoration. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a ballerina gown of all-over lace. Her veil was fingertip length, with a halo crown of seed pearls, and the bouquet was an orchid surrounded by bouvardia.

Mrs. Marion Hauser was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Virginia Klein and Miss Barbara Mack. Their dresses were in pastel green, yellow and blue, and were styled in ballerina length with matching net caps. They carried white carnations with colored ribbons.

Best man was Robert Russo, brother of the groom, and ushers were Stan Callan, and Ray Toney of Daly City.

Dr. Mark Rifenback officiated at the ceremony.

A reception for approximately 300 relatives and friends followed at the parish house.

After their honeymoon in southern California, the couple will settle in Palo Alto.

Daly City Garden Club Holds Successful Tour

The annual Daly City Garden club tour of local gardens held last week was graced by a large turnout. This year the gardens, though not large, were varied to point up the relationship of the family to the garden, according to Mrs. E. M. Garrison.

Illustrating this example was the home of Mrs. J. Garay on Munich street. Her garden is the setting for a huge patio, complete with tables, benches and a barbecue pit, thus emphasizing outdoor living.

At the Robert Hunter residence on Crocker avenue the accent was on the unusual. The garden, on a downward slope, was originally designed for a small grandchild. Myriad paths, miniature figures, bird houses and castles are found on the paths. One variety of moss rose was seen and the rare Canadian (ruffled type) nasturtium covered one small bank.

A more formal garden was seen at the Mollettes of Muirwood drive. Rose bushes of "Sutters Gold," "Crimson Glory," and "Climbing Peace" were loaded with buds. Pansies and violas bordered the lawn area, and a miniature vegetable garden was in evidence.

Guests arriving at the Garrison's home in Westlake were met by Mrs. Garrison in Hawaiian garb and conducted to the downstairs family room. Palm leaves and colored lights formed a novel background for the vivid flower arrangements of rannuculas, stocks and pelargoniums. Opening directly off the room through French doors was a wide patio, bordered by lawn area and planting strip.

Next was the garden of the Q. E. Kramers on Acton street. Long a begonia and fuchsia enthusiast, Kramer has turned his attention to ferns, which he has blended into the landscaping. This garden differed completely from each of the others on tour and is a fine example of the pure hobbyist with free reign, according to Mrs. Garrison.

The tour ended at the home of Marie Gronemeyer on Larchmont in Broadmoor, where refreshments were served following a short business meeting. Due to the lateness of the hour, the garden was viewed only briefly, but compensating were inside floral arrangements as well as a magnificent view.

Irene Smith Weds Peter Pastorino

May 6 proved a day of double celebration for the Smith family with the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith and the marriage of their daughter, Irene Louise, to Peter Louis Pastorino.

The family gathered first for the wedding in San Carlos. The bride wore a light blue fitted suit with white accessories and orchid. Her only attendant, Mrs. Thelma Chindler, wore a print dress.

The new Mrs. Pastorino attended Jefferson High school, San Mateo Junior college and San Francisco Teachers college. She taught for several years at Woodrow Wilson school. Her husband also attended school in Daly City.

For the dinner which followed the wedding, the bride changed to a light blue dress. She and her husband joined the rest of the family at the Pioneer Inn in Woodside before leaving for a Las Vegas and Palm Springs honeymoon.

The Pastorino's will return Sunday when they will take up residence in San Mateo until a new home is completed in San Bruno.

NEWLY MARRIED Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russo pose for a wedding picture after rites in San Jose. The bride is the former Beth Calvin of Daly City. She is a graduate of Jefferson High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calvin. The couple plan to live in Palo Alto after their marriage.

HILLSIDE PTA TO SEE FASHION SHOW WEDNESDAY

An invitation is extended to all to attend the general meeting of the Hillside PTA, Wednesday evening, May 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the All-Purpose Room of the Colma school, according to Mrs. Dorothy Manis, publicity chairman.

The highlight of the evening will be the fashion show presented by the eighth grade sewing classes of Mrs. Mayo and Mrs. Tobkin, in which approximately 100 children will participate. The clothes to be shown will be exclusively made and modeled by the children in these classes.

Also participating in the entertainment will be the Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Murel Vint.

The stage setting and exhibits will be done by the art classes of Mrs. Cordell, Mrs. Shaffer, Mrs. Burr and Mr. Odd.

JEFF HI PTA PRESIDENT RETURNS FROM STATE MEET

Mrs. Fred Kruse of Westlake, president of the Jefferson Union High school PTA unit, has just returned from the C.C.P.T.A. convention held at Los Angeles from May 4 through 6 which convened in the Shrine Auditorium. She was accompanied by Mrs. Chester Mattison and Mrs. Sol Lieberman. Over 4000 delegates were in attendance and of this number, over 600 delegates were men.

Mrs. Kruse said that the convention was very informative and the speakers were outstanding. She was particularly impressed by Dr. E. W. Muehl's statement to the effect that in general, PTAs are provincial and concerned with what is going on in their own backyards and this gives them roots among the people who really run the nation. Also, Dr. Richard Barbour advised that fathers should spend at least 15 minutes a day with their sons, who are now dominated by their mothers. He said that across the nation there are three boys in trouble to every two girls. He pointed out that fathers could do much to change the picture.

One high school represented at the convention had 1000 members and 100% membership. "If we could have just five parents in attendance at our meetings for each one of the wonderful faculty members who regularly attends, I feel that the Jefferson Union High School PTA would take a big step forward," said Mrs. Kruse.

The next regular meeting of the Jefferson Union High school PTA will be tomorrow (Thursday) at 8 p.m. in the Little Theater. The matter of raising dues to $1 per member and 50 cents per each additional member in the family will be brought before the unit for a vote.

Mrs. Mary Louise Breithaupt will direct the program regarding "Opportunities Unlimited" and the committees on student welfare and conservation and thrift will be featured.

It is hoped that parents who have been unable to attend previous meetings will try to come to this one inasmuch as it will be the last one until the fall and the program will be especially interesting to everyone, Mrs. Kruse said.

FOUR WESTLAKE AUTOS DAMAGED BY DRUNK SF COP

A San Francisco police officer pleaded guilty Tuesday in Municipal Court to a charge of being drunk in and about an automobile. Friday night his car allegedly plowed into four parked cars on Crestwood drive, causing considerable damage, according to police.

Bert A. Bystrom of 633 Prentiss street, San Francisco, told Daly City Officers Richard Brohman and Dean Wood that he fell asleep at the wheel of his car. Bystrom had just turned on to Crestwood from Bel Mar avenue, when his car crashed into the rear of the last car, sending it forward to begin the pileup.

All of the damaged vehicles were owned by residents of an apartment house at 161 Crestwood drive. Victims were John M. Harrold, Leila S. Trego, Virginia D. Webster and George D. Powers.

Motor Trouble Almost Calamity In Broadmoor

What started out as a simple matter of motor trouble wound up as a near-calamity yesterday morning in Broadmoor.

Dorothy Jackman, 36, of 739 Stoneyford drive, was unable to start her auto so pushed it out of her garage.

The vehicle got away, however, rolled backwards, hit the curb on the opposite side of the street, then veered downhill, running into the front yard of Robert J. Roscoe, 803 Stoneyford drive. The auto stopped against the garage, dong minor damage to the doors.

CONCERT DRIVE COMMITTEE IN FINAL MEETING

Over 30 division chairmen and committee heads of the Vista Grande Concert association met at the home of the association secretary, Mrs. Alan Mori, 21 Garden Lane, for a dessert luncheon Monday.

Presiding at the business meeting which followed was Mrs. H. Z. Weibel, general membership chairman, who also distributed renewal cards for present members to division chairmen for ultimate distribution to the individual workers.

Mrs. Weibel said that the remainder of this week would be devoted to securing renewal memberships in order that all emphasis could be placed on new members during the membership campaign May 16 to 21. Mrs. Weibel emphasized that membership dues, $6 per year for adults, $3 for students, guarantee a minimum of three concerts per year, and that all is needed to expand the series is to secure additional memberships.

J. J. Christian, dinner chairman, announced that the dinner meeting to serve as a kick-off for the campaign will be held at The Colonial Restaurant in Colma at 7:30 p.m., May 16. Principal speaker at this meeting will be Miss Alma Lauritzen, field representative of the parent organization, who is assisting with the local campaign.

Mrs. Weibel also announced that in addition to the headquarters which will be set up at 27 Westlake Court in the Westlake Shopping Center, booths will be set up in King's Market, 2350 Junipero Serra boulevard, Kay's Dress Shop, 46 San Pedro Road, Colma (opposite Colma branch, Bank of America), and Sprouse-Reitz Co., Inc., 6400 Mission street.

the Skyway concern. He said that the defendants agreed to issue him 80 shares of outstanding stock, elect him president and pay him $100 a week as service manager.

The plaintiff charges that the defendants instead conspired to issue new stock, to withdraw large sums of money from the corporation and to retain him as president for only a short time.

Argus Of Colma School

ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS: On Friday an award's assembly was held to bestow the "hard earned" block "Cs" to the worthy students. These block Cs were earned as a result of participating in various school activities such as: Hall guide, class representatives, student body president, commissioners and other officers of Student Council, traffic patrol, newspaper, yearbook, athletics, and many others. With the accumulation of 100 points the students were assured of the award and with the earning of 200 points five students won the addition of a star to go with the block.

There were five eighth graders who earned their star. They were Marilyn Garris, Gary Cowden, Pat Palmer, Andy Scalese, and Sandra Smith. The seventh graders who qualified this year were: Charles Bruce, Donald Clemens, Lawrence Day, Ernest Eisner, Barbara Golloday, Leonard Grassini, Anthony Buillory, Richard Mitchell, Judy Massoni, Barbara Newcomb and David Vallerga. We of the Argus say, "A job well done—congratulations, all."

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE—Orchids to the band under the direction of Mr. Richard Snyder. They have played at all assemblies and have added a great deal to each and every one. We'll be seeing them soon in the Music Festival.

MACKLIN MUTTERS—Oh, the frustration of being a newspaper reporter. It is even that way for those who write this weekly column. Take Gary Shearer, for instance. Seeking certain facts about sports activities here at Colma school, he was sent to five different rooms and back again to the room in which he had started before he was at last given the desired information and sent back to his own room to "write his story up," thinking all the while how much easier it would have been to get the needed facts and figures if he had only a "press card," or some such unmistakable identification to show the teachers he really meant business. Similar experiences have happened to many other of our "reporters," sometimes causing the delay of news being printed for a whole week. And that is not too good.

ART AWARDS—At an assembly held April 29 awards were presented to winners in the National Scholastic and Lions Club Art exhibit. In the National Scholastic, Linda Kerr and Charles Hunley were presented Gold Keys. This is an honor attained by few students in the United States; there work is now on display in the East. Others mentioned were: Norman Sontag, Sandra Castagnoli, Leonard Grassini and Sandra Forsman. In the Lions Club exhibit the awards were divided into four catagories: a cup for first, a plaque for second, a blue ribbon for third and a red ribbon for honorable mention. The first prize was awarded to Connie Benson and a group of students in Room 52 for their group project.

Those who won plaques were: Marie Dykes, John Farber, Alfreda Runge, Robert Watson, Florence Wallis, Sherry Newton, Charles Hunley, Mary Salmon, Lorene Balsano, Walter Morales and Pamela Naty. Third prize was presented to Nancy Cameron, Steven Deuchel, Steven Hardy, Mike Molinari and Teddy Fairchild. Red ribbons were awarded to Carolyn Waller, Darlene Cross, Diane Cross, Lillian Walton, Jerilyn Vickers, Karen Carlisle, Dennis Marson, Raymond Chun Fat, Janice Goddin, Marjory Godfrey and Leonard Grassini. And who says all the artists are in France?

OUR TEAM—Small basketballs in gold were presented to the Varsity Basketball team who were runners-up in the Ravenswood Invitational tournament. Those one the team were: Larry Guerrero, Peter Garcia, Ross Holmgren, George Ojakian, Ernest Howren, Larry Schoenfeldt, Steve Opperman, Albert Mayer, Irwin Wong, Ron Kalinin, Gary Cowden, John Featherstone, Donald Burley, Garry McGinnis—and for Coach Bill Mendosa a "student body's sincere THANKS."

WE THE EIGHTH GRADERS OF COLMA—Today is the day when all good students shall come to the aid of their diploma. It is the day of the government test which will include American history, government (federal, state, county and city), and United Nations. With the date being Friday, May 13, we throw a pinch of salt over our left shoulder and fondly wave good-bye to Colma.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER—Miss Barbara Biagini's class is very proud of Marian Kilpatrick, who received an award for being a participant in the San Mateo County Spelling Bee finals. Argus extends its congratulations, but is sorry that Colma didn't have a representative in the state finals.

THIS TELEVISION—Mr. Walter Odd of Room 32 is hobbling about school these days with a broken toe thanks to his television set. Some of the "boys" of the neighborhood and he didn't quite agree as to what program should be seen, and in the ensuing scuffle Mr. Odd's big toe got in the way. He didn't know until a week later that it was broken.

LUCKY WINNERS—Who are going to be the lucky ones. Mr. James Hough of Room II is going to give away ten copies of the Declaration of Independence. He got them from the Bank of America. Three of them are going to be given to those who score highest on the trial government test. The other seven will be awarded to the seven highest in the final.

NAB LOCAL YOUTHS AFTER $3000 THEFT

Two local teen-age boys who ran off with $3000 and a stolen car were returned home this week after being picked up in Merced by California highway patrolmen.

Police said the boys, 14 and 15, were apprehended by the CHP after abandoning their auto and purchasing flashy scooters. The car and $2300 in cash and $700 in money orders were taken from the Daly City boy's father, owner of a local motel. The second youth, 15, lives in Colma.

No police charges have been filed against either boy. Police did not disclose how much of the money was spent.

CROCKERITES REPORT

4TH GRADE
MRS. EDGERLEY

On May 4 Crocker school had its May Festival. The children of each class wore hats or scarfs. Each class performed two folk dances. Many parents came to watch the dances. Our Fourth Grade danced "Gustafs' Skol" and "Wooden Shoes."

During Public Schools week—from April 25 to 29, many of our parents came to see our new Multi-use room. Monday of Public Schools week Crocker's Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Vint, sang several songs. Our school band, under the direction of Mr. Snyder played several musical selections.

On May 6, our class took a field trip to Fisherman's Wharf and to Coit Tower.

4th GRADE
MISS LEKAS

Our Fourth Grade Class has been studying about California. When we first began our unit we learned about the geographical background of California. Then we went on to study the population centers and the types of people.

After completing our study of the natural resources of our State, we have gone on to study California's agriculture.

The American Can company sent each one of us a wonderful book called Gree Gold. This book is about the adventures of a class as it found out about the riches of California's agriculture. We simply love this book and we are grateful to the company for sending us without charge, copies for the whole class.

Johnstone, who was called to the apartment building, officers had to force the door open and remove it by pulling it out. Johnstone said that this was necessary because Walker's body was lying against the door of the 5 by 6 foot room.

The revolver was still in his right hand. Walker used the only bullet in the gun, according to Johnstone.

Next to the body were several Spanish text books, evidently used by the victim in college.

The coroner is now investigating the death.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy joins Sereni in urging everyone in Daly City to take advantage of this opportunity to rid their homes of all unwanted and discarded materials.

"Newspapers, discarded clothes, furniture and cardboard boxes are a serious fire hazard," Kennedy said today. "Those old cans of paint with just a little paint in them, are another bad problem. Lets get rid of them."

Pickup for each house will be on the regular garbage day. Sereni asks that bundles be placed on the curb the night before cleanup.

cine, according to Mrs. Helen Delafield, Jefferson elementary school district health coordinator.

She said that parents have evidently been scared off by the recent stoppage of the vaccine supply.

"The consent slips are coming in slowly, probably because parents are waiting for federal government approval," she said today.

In the first poll of parents several weeks ago, there was an average of two or three no's on vaccine. The new consent slips show a much higher number of denials, according to Mrs. Delafield.

Volunteers Meet

Fifty-five women volunteers gathered at the Broadmoor Village Community center Monday to learn Salk vaccine procedure, according to Mrs. Delafield.

Mrs. Delafield termed the Monday meeting "very successful."

Appointed chairmen of the three centers were Mrs. Sanford Vickers, Colma; Mrs. Thomas Waldvogel, Woodrow Wilson; and Mrs. Vincent Murphy and Mrs. M. Hoffman, Garden Village.

Shots will be administered at the three designated spots on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week, and June 6, 8 and 10, Mrs. Delafield reports.

The local health coordinator, Miss Helen Hicks from the county health department and Mrs. Betty Boykin, school nurse, addressed the meeting on different phases of the program.

and the city.

Stipulations made for the acceptance of the resubdivision, as outlined by City Manager Howard Stites, were:

1. Improvement of boundaries and larger turnabout areas.

2. Abandonment of a portion of Chester street, if it meets with PG&E approval, which owns adjoining property.

3. Annexation of a small portion of Crocker Estate to "square off" the proposed subdivision, with the Estate's approval.

4. Submission of five copies of new tentative map with modifications to include vacation of Chester and addition of two 25 foot lots facing Atlanta, 100 feet in depth with frontage adjacent to Lots 1, 2 and 3, Block A, of the proposed resubdivision.

5. Installation by Lagomarsino of concrete curbs and gutters and asphaltic pavement on Hoffman street.

At Monday's council meeting Lagomarsino claimed he had been held up eight months on the resubdivision and charged that Councilman Sanford Vickers was responsible.

Lagomarsino intimated that Vickers favored Builder Thomas Callan Jr. because his father was on the sanitation district board, of which Vickers is a member.

"I'm not obligated to anybody," shouted Vickers.

Lagomarsino then tore into Stites, asking, "Why don't you go back where you came from? I've seen you guys come and go. I'll be here a long time after you will."

In other action by the planning commission Tuesday, application to build basement apartment at 231 Hillcrest, submitted by Mrs. D. Praig, was held over.

Petition for annexation of a narrow strip of property between Junipero Serra boulevard and Dunks street, entered by Edward C. Bocci and Conti Estate, was recommended for approval.

LINDA SUDDETH, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark Suddeth, 811 Masson avenue, San Bruno, may be just a little girl in kindergarten, but Sunday, June 5, she will be the envy of all the little girls in San Bruno as she reigns as 1955 princess over the 15th annual Posy Parade, sponsored by San Bruno Optimist club. This is the one parade of the year when only children are permitted to take part. Many of the children will decorate their bicycles, scooters, wagons and toy baby-buggies with thousands of flowers grown in local gardens. Others will parade their pets such as dogs, cats, ducks, goats and other animals. The parade started 15 years ago with just a few children pulling their wagons; it has grown into an affair involving thousands of children with floats, which if made commercially, would cost hundreds of dollars. Linda's father is a pharmacists mate aboard the aircraft carrier USS Shangri-la. She has one sister, Laura Ann, who is 5.

Jeff Playoff Hopes Rest on Today's South City Crucial; Creighton Starts

Revived after two straight shutouts over Burlingame, Jefferson High school baseball team goes after big game today (Friday) in the person of South San Francisco.

The Indians need a win today, Tuesday against South City again, and the following Friday against Capuchino to cinch second place in the NPAL and a spot in the playoffs. Fortune played in the Jeffs hands Friday, as both San Mateo and South City suffered upset defeats.

Three wins would also give the Daly City players one more than their self-imposed goal of 20 victories on the season. As of now, they have 18 wins, seven losses.

The Indians blanked Burlingame Tuesday, 3-0, for the second time in five days to boost their PAL mark to 4-3.

Creighton Starts

Lowell Creighton returned to the mound in a starting role and held the Panthers to two hits in four innings, striking out six batters. Jim Honeywell took over in the fifth, allowing a like number of hits and striking out two batsmen.

The Jeffs 1-0 lead going into the seventh was shaky but three hits added two runs and a margin of safety.

The Indians got their first tally in the third inning after Creighton singled, was advanced to second on Ken Smith's walk, to third on Rich Guisti's single, and home on Al Figone's walk.

The game remained scoreless until the seventh, when two walks, a sacrifice and singles by John Murphy and Ray Vuillmainroy added a pair.

The local club knocked out a total of five singles, led by Vuillmainroy's two for three.

Honeywell One-Hitter

In Friday's opening of hostilities against Burlingame Honeywell reached his season's best in twirling a one-hit 7-0 triumph for the Mission street high schoolers.

A first-inning single that was just out of reach of short stop Figone was the Panthers only hit. Honeywell, working five innings, struck out eight men, walked one.

Tex Prentice relieved, holding the Burlingame line-up hitless, striking out one and giving a base on balls.

The Indians hit safely 11 times and were in control throughout, taking a 4-0 lead in the first inning on a bases loaded homer by Figone. Three hits yielded two more runs in the second inning, and Rich Guisti doubled in the fourth to add the final tally. Figone was top swatter with three for three, driving in six runs. He now leads individual hitting with .353. Murphy and Bob Bailey each got two for four.

It's Creighton Today

Creighton will definitely start today's contest against South City at the Jefferson diamond, according to Coach Lou Martin.

Martin has resigned himself that first place is beyond grasp, since San Mateo has one less loss and only two games to go, both against weak Burlingame. "If we can keep hitting we'll take the next three. Then we'll worry about the playoffs when we get there," Martin explains.

The second-place spot is currently held jointly by Jefferson, SSF and Capuchino. Two wins over South City would eliminate them and a victory over Cap would knock them out of the running.

This, Martin figures, makes his Jefferson club the key team.

"We'll just take 'em one at a time," says Martin.

OLPH Juniors Win Streak Ends At 14

After a string of 14 victories, OLPH Juniors got dumped, 3-2, in a CYO league contest against St. Michael's Saturday at Ocean View.

Coach Lowell Creighton Sr. protested the outcome on the basis that a St. Michael's player, second baseman Robert Escobar, was ineligible. Creighton claimed that Escobar doesn't attend the parochial school or live within the parish district, a CYO requirement.

The loss gave OLPH a 2-1 league mark.

The OLPHers outhit SM, seven to five, but went down in extra innings after the contest was tied, 2-2, at the end of five. A single with a runner on second pushed home the winning tally for St. Michael's.

Billy Whalen pitched for OLPH, giving up five hits, three walks and striking out ten batters.

George Claus, Dave Gehre, Barry Krohn and Whalen were top hitters for the locals. Claus got three singles.

Creighton's protest is still being considered by CYO directors.

Sunday in a practice game against Broadmoor intermediates the Juniors prevailed, 11-8, for their 15th win in 16 starts.

The tilt was tied, 6-6, at the end of five. Dave Gehre threw for the first six innings, giving up six hits, two walks and striking out four, and was relieved by Larry Kane, who held the Broadmoor club to two hits, one walk and struck out four.

Claus and Gehre were top batsmen. The entire OLPH roster hit safely.

This Saturday the Juniors meet Epiphany at Jefferson diamond, starting at 10 a.m., following up Sunday against Broadmoor Pirates at 12 noon, also at the high school field.

VIKES HELD TO 1-1 TIE BY "FOURS" IN B'MOOR SOCCER

League-leading Vikings were held to a 1-1 tie by Seven Fours last Tuesday in Broadmoor Soccer league action.

Jim Heick gave the Vikes the advantage with the first tally, but Paul Bennett retaliated with a score for the Fours and neither team could boot one across the remainder of the game.

In other Tuesday play Ken Magoon and Terry Christman each kicked one goal as Mercury edged but the once-powerful Hotspurs, 2-1. Bill Hix garnered the losers point.

Thursday Mercury shut out Caldonians, 2-0, shoving the losers in the cellar. Magoon and Garrett MacDonald got one apiece for the winners.

OLPH JUNIORS NIP BROADMOOR NINE 11-8

A two-hit relief job by Larry Kane gave OLPH Juniors a 11-8 win over Broadmoor intermediates Sunday at Jefferson High diamond.

The score was knotted, 6-6, at the end of the fifth inning when Kane took over to finish out the nine-inning clash.

Dave Gehre worked the first five innings, giving up six hits, two walks and striking out four batters. Kane allowed two hits, one walk, struck out four and was credited with the win.

Everybody on the OLPH line-up hit safely. George Claus and Gehre were top batsmen for the Juniors.

Next Sunday at the high school diamond the Juniors will face Broadmoor Pirates, starting at 12 noon, in a practice game.

Girls Athletic Night Is New Recreation Offering

The Daly City recreation department, in response to the growing needs of the community, has instituted a "Girls Athletic Night" to be conducted at the community center one evening weekly from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The program, which will be devoted exclusively to teen-age girls, will start Wednesday and continue every Wednesday. Activities to be included in the program are badminton, volleyball, and basketball. Instruction will be provided in each of these sports for beginners. Additional information may be had by phoning James R. Mason at the center.

B'moor Cub Pack 84 Finishes In Second

Broadmoor Cub Pack 84 closed out the "AA" West of Twin Peaks Baseball league Saturday with a 13-8 win over Pack 1.

The victory gave Broadmoor a season mark of seven wins, three losses, and undisputed second place behind the champions, Pack 115.

Broadmoor was beaten twice by Pack 115 in close contests.

The local Cubs released a five-run rally in the last inning Saturday to break an 8-8 deadlock.

Bruce Hix, Ricky Landess, Ronnie Townsend and Bill Faust provided the batting artillery for Broadmoor, each getting two or more hits apiece.

John Hess, Ed Wietala, Glen Hilton, Melvin Hahn and Dick South contributed singles. Jimmy Jair and Ronnie Krowitz were lauded for their outfield play.

Hix, Landess and Faust wound up with the year's hitting honors, with respective averages of .558, .550 and .400. Pitchers South and Hahn finished with 4-1 and 3-2 marks respectively.

South started on the mound Saturday and was hoisted in the third frame after experiencing control trouble. Hahn carried relief duties and assumed command over the Pack 1 batting lineup.

George Landess and Ross Hilton handled coaching duties for Broadmoor.

The Cub team will receive a trophy and individual awards for their second-place finish in the Twin Peaks league.

That's My Point

By Monte Dayton

Come June 25, about 400 Daly City youngsters, ranging in age from 8 to 15 years, will be taking part in American youth's favorite pastime—hardball.

The program, second of its kind and the largest participation enterprise in Daly City, will be conducted by Daly City recreation department, and will include three divisions—Midgets league (8 to 10 years), Little league (10 to 12 years), and Junior league (13 to 15 years).

The three circuits will be made up of a total of 24 teams, all managed by adults who volunteer their time.

Facilities to be used are Jefferson High school field, Brisbane park, Sharp Park playground and Marchbanks park.

Besides these 24 teams who will be kicking up the dust through September 1, the recreation department sponsors two clubs in the county league. Last year these two teams were Westlake Rockets and Ralph's Cleaners. The Rockets, entered in the junior division, picked off first place.

SKULL SESSION FOR VOLUNTEERS

An organization meeting for the summer leagues will be held May 25 at 8 p.m. at the community center, with Lou Martin, Jeff High coach, in charge. All interested adults are invited to attend.

Then for the oldsters (the younger set have already demonstrated they won't go for softball) the local Adult Softball league opens May 23.

There'll be ten clubs in this shindig.

Which means that by early summer, Daly City Recreation department will have 36 teams playing every week. Anybody have any doubts that baseball is still the most popular sport?

NOT EVERYBODY OUTWITTED BY FINNY ONES

Not everybody from Daly City got blanked on the debut of trout season April 30.

Tony Masini, Mike Lanza, Cliff Degnam, Moe Masini, George Ricome, Bob Young, Herb Salvatore and Joe Shultz made their annual fishing "pilgrimmage" to the south fork of the Trinity and came back with limits all the way around.

"South Fork of the Trinity" was as close as we could get on the geography, so if you go up there trying to find their spot you'd better take at least a month off.

The octet of Daly City anglers limited both days of the weekend, with most of the fish running about 8 and 10 inches. Salmon eggs did the trick.

Bob Hunter, former fire commisisoner, couldn't make the trip with the "Big Eight" as his son was making first communion.

A NOTE TO CHECK OUT MOSSI

We had a note in the "sports" basket to find out what Don Mossi was doing with the Cleveland Indians.

On latest information received he is doing a bit of all right.

Tuesday night he had to pull the chestnuts out for Bob Lemon, pitching two hitless innings in relief to help down the New York Yankees, 9-6.

Lemon got in a jackpot in the eighth inning and Lopez called on Mossi. The pride and joy of Daly City snuffed out a Yank rally by striking out pinch-hitters Elson Howard and Bob Cerv. In the ninth he retired NY batsmen in order.

Tuesday's efforts stretched Mossi's streak to 11 innings in which the opposition has not scored an earned run.

Teachers Get Salary Increase the salary committee.

New Figure, $642,220

The present budget allocates $636,220 for teachers' salaries. The aproved schedule will raise the figure to about $642,220.

Weibel told the board that he based his recommendation on the thought that "if a teacher is going to work for more education, she might as well benefit from an M.A."

"It is true that an M.A. in the past often did not benefit a teacher, but it is not true today," he explained.

When asked by Trustee Katherine Mullen if it was true that it was difficult for a teacher to obtain a Masters in the six-year time limit, Weibel replied, "It would depend on the individual, some wouldn't find it hard at all."

Board member Henry Kraus inserted the comment that units mean "quantity" and an M.A. "quality."

"Provide Reward"

"We should provide a reward for an M.A.," he added.

Trustee Michael Callan agreed with Kraus by stating that the board should "force" teachers to get their masters degree.

"Don't use the word, 'force,'" Trustee Helen Cheatham insisted. "Use the word, 'encourage.' We should encourage teachers to get their M.A., or otherwise they will languish in class C."

Mrs. Cheatham's remark is explained by the fact that while the third class of salaries in the approved schedule requires an M.A. degree or 36 post graduate units, the teachers recommendation did not provide for an arbitrary M.A. at all. A Masters degree is roughly equivalent to 36 units.

Requirement List

Following is a list of present, teacher proposed and approved requirements: (Each of the brackets take a teacher into a higher salary range.)

CLASS A: A.B. or less, throughout.

CLASS B: A.B. plus 24, present; A.B. plus 15, both teachers and approved.

CLASS C: A.B. plus 48, present; A.B. plus 30, teachers; and A.B. plus 36, approved.

CLASS D: M.A. or any five-year degree, present; A.B. plus 45, teachers; and M.A. plus 15, approved.

CLASS E: M.A. plus 24, present; A.B. plus 60 or M.A., teachers; and M.A. plus 24, aproved.

Salary Range

Salary ranges will be as follows: class A, $3700 to $5240; class B, $3820 to $5500; class C, $3950 to $5620; class D, $4090 to $6040; and class E, $4240 to $6320.

In other business the board tabled the request of Fred Schweickhardt, representing the school administrative staff, for a raise. Schweickhardt asked the board to raise a 1.15 figure to 1.30. This figure is multiplied by the figure on the teachers' schedule which fits the educational and experience of the administrator.

The next board meeting will be May 26.

SEWAGE DISTRICT CALLS GARAGE BID

Bids for a storage garage at North San Mateo County Sanitation district sewage treatment plant in Westlake will be opened June 13 at the regular afternoon board of directors meeting.

The board advertised for bids on the project, estimated to cost $5000, at their session Monday.

In other business this week, the board:

1. Asked their attorney to inquire about possibility of obtaining settling pond area in basin, now owned by San Francisco, for Daly City.
2. Heard report on rat extermination in district manholes.
3. Heard proposal from Conci golf course to install own pipelines.
4. Held in abeyance Westmoor school sewage installation, pending report from school architect.
5. Set today (Friday) as date for Engineer Howard Stites to interview applicant for chief plant operator. Hiring will probably be in two weeks.

Frosh-Soph 9 Continues Torrid Pace

Jefferson High school frosh-soph club remained unbeaten last Thursday with a 2-0 victory over Burlingame.

Ed Leveroni worked the full route, gaining his eighth win against no losses as he threw a one-hit shutout.

A double in the fourth frame was the only hit that marred Leveroni's performance.

Leveroni struck out 10 batters, walked only two. Only four Panther batters reached the basepaths.

The Indians picked up seven hits. The two runs were tallied in the fifth inning as Bill Strassburger singled with men on second and third to drive two counters home.

Ino Patron, frosh whiz, again saved possible runs from scoring with a spectacular catch. Paul Tapia and Barry Haanen each banged a pair of singles to lead Jeff hitting.

The win gave Coach Byron Van Alstyne's phenomenal yearling club a 13-0 mark and leadership in the PAL with a 5-0 record.

"JEFFERSON NIGHT" AT SEALS STADIUM

Tonight (Friday) will be "Jefferson Night" at Seals Stadium when the San Francisco club meets Sacramento in a PCL contest.

The entire Jefferson High school student body has been invited by Tommy Heath, Seals manager, to attend the game free of charge.

Interest will be focused on Sacramento pitcher Ed Cereghino, bonus-baby who graduated from Jefferson. Tonight will mark the first starting assignment for the 21-year-old right hander, who is on option from the New York Yankees.

Daly City residents who want to help make up the Jefferson contingent are invited to attend (not for free). The high schoolers will be seated behind third base.

LOWELL KLAISNER SMASHES TWO PAL 30S SPRINT RECORDS

Jefferson didn't bring home any championships Monday at the PAL track and field championships at Angel field, but two records on the league books will bear the name of Lowell Klaisner, Indians 30s sprinter, for at least another year.

Klaisner, competing in early season varsity competition, proved his supremacy over the lightweights by speeding to new marks in the 330 and 150 yard dashes.

The Indian flash whizzed the 150 in 15.3, knocking two-tenths of a second off the previous best, set by Knoth of Lincoln in 1952.

Klaisner really turned on the steam in the 330, a race he had run only five times in competition, as he dashed the three-quarter lap in 36.8, half-second better than the old standard of 37.3 established by Walwrath of Willow Glen in 1953.

Klaisner's double victory, coupled with an anchor lap on the Record busting relay team, helped the Jeffs to their fifth place finish as they wound up with 25 points.

The local varsity, unable to pull a winner, finished in eighth spot with 13 digits.

Point-winners were Rich Gonzales, Bill Curtis, George Seger and Jim Rector. Rector finished second in the mile behind his old nemesis, Ron Larrieu of Palo Alto, who went the route in 4:31.3. Gonzales ran a third in the 880 that was won in the fast time of 1:58.7.

Curtis jumped 5' x 8½" for a third, while Seger's discus toss of 120' 2" was good for fourth.

Jeff's 20s wound up fourth with 17 points, as Sonny Martinez and Dan Miceli provided all the point power.

Martinez gained a fourth in the 75 and third in the 150 yard dashes, while Miceli ran fifth in the 150, third in the 330.

Martinez broadjumped 19' 5¾" to take a third in that event. The local 440 relay team took a second to Palo Alto.

Besides Klaisner, other 30s gaining points were Steve Mack, fifth in the 660, and the relay team of Mike Piazza, Klaisner, Jerry Nix and Mack which won in 45 seconds flat, breaking the 45.6 record set by San Jose in 1948.

Punch-line to the year's hottest power story—

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

This is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stopwatches wherever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR* stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in its class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, the Motoramic Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8".

It puts a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower—or if you're looking for even more excitement, the new "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) puts 180 h.p. under your toe!

Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motoramic Chevrolet is showing its heels to everyone else on the road!
